

Whistle Blower Protection

The Issaquah School District encourages its employees to disclose improper government actions by district officers and other employees, Unless otherwise prohibited by law. The superintendent shall develop procedures to protect district employees who make good faith reports to appropriate governmental bodies and to provide remedies for individuals subjected to retaliation for making such reports. Such protection is generally contingent upon the employee's following the prescribed procedures for reporting.

Notices advising all district employees of this policy and the procedures to be followed under the policy shall be posted permanently so that all employees have access to them.
