

Provisional Employees

Provisional employees are those certificated staff in a teaching or other non-supervisory position during their first or second year of employment. On the matter of continued employment, the board of directors shall have final authority after hearing the recommendation of the superintendent, an appeal by the employee (if any) and considering applicable evaluation provisions of the negotiated agreement.

Legal Reference:

RCW 28A.405.220 Non-renewal of provisional employees

Adopted: September 24, 1987

Formerly: Policy 5253