

WASHINGTON STATE SEXUAL MISCONDUCT – DISCLOSURE RELEASE

The legislature has determined that additional safeguards are necessary in the hiring of school district employees to ensure the safety of Washington’s school children. Districts are required to contact previous school district employers seeking all information relating to Sexual Misconduct.

Please complete the information below and return it to the Issaquah School District Human Resources Dept.

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY:

Legal Name of Employee: _____

Job Title: _____

Email Address (PERSONAL ONLY): _____

Phone Number: _____

Last four (4) digits of Social Security Number: _____

I have Issaquah School District experience (check box that applies):

 Yes No

Have you been employed in any other educational system other than the Issaquah School District?

If yes, select: Public Private

Signature of Employee: _____ Date: _____

Please Note: If you have worked for a public school district other than the Issaquah School District you will receive an e-mail from ethicsdata.com within 4 business days. If you have questions please e-mail Tricia Neill, NeillP@issaquah.wednet.edu.